AMERICA

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
    Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the pilgrims' pride,
From every mountain-side
    Let Freedom ring.

Our fathers' God, to Thee,
Author of liberty,
    To Thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With Freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
    Great God, our King.

AULD LANG SYNE

Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to mind?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And days of auld lang syne?

For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne;
We'll take a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne.

AMERICA

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
    Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the pilgrims' pride,
From every mountain-side
    Let Freedom ring.

Our fathers' God, to Thee,
Author of liberty,
    To Thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With Freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
    Great God, our King.

AULD LANG SYNE

Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to mind?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And days of auld lang syne?

For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne;
We'll take a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne.

To the Graduating Class

SUMMER SESSION 1952

In the three graduating periods of 1952—February, June, and August—the University has awarded a total of 4,420 degrees! This is a group as big as the total student body of many colleges.

There is a dramatic impact to this size for the excellent reason that it has been reached without a lowering of standards. Many an "old grad," concerned about the way the University has grown, would have trouble with the problems and examinations you have mastered.

At the same time, no other students have had better character references! Many of you returned from military service worried about the sudden adjustment to academic life. But your influence on other students and staff members alike has been salutary.

We are deeply moved by the departure of so many veterans. We salute you for that extra measure of devotion that has kept you here against all temptation to leave before finishing. The most exciting half century in world history lies before you. It will make heavy demands on your ability to think.

You must realize—all of you—that in graduating from the University of Illinois, you are becoming alumni for life. We will rejoice and be proud of your achievements. We will join in your sorrows and disappointments. We want you to participate in the affairs of your University, for alumni mean much to its future.

All this involves a dual responsibility. Here at the campus, we will do everything within our power to maintain your University as one of the great educational institutions of the world. We want you to be as proud of your University as it is of you. Wherever you go, whatever you do, remember that Illinois claims you as a son or daughter.

May you always remember your Alma Mater with sincere affection!

AMERICA

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
    Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrims' pride,
From every mountain-side
    Let Freedom ring.

Our fathers' God, to Thee,
Author of liberty,
    To Thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With Freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
    Great God, our King.

AULD LANG SYNE

Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to mind?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And days of auld lang syne?

For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne;
We'll take a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne.

AMERICA

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
    Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrims' pride,
From every mountain-side
    Let Freedom ring.

Our fathers' God, to Thee
Author of liberty,
    To thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With Freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
    Great God, our King.

AULD LANG SYNE

Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to mind?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And days of auld lang syne?

For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne;
We'll take a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne.

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrims' pride,
From every mountain-side,
Let Freedom ring.

Our fathers' God, to Thee
Author of liberty,
To Thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With Freedom's holy light;

ACADEMIC COSTUMES

The academic costume, consisting of cap, gown, and hood, originated in about the twelfth century. It was primarily worn for warmth. Subsequently, the material of the gown and the lining and shape of the hood represented the economic and social as well as the academic status of the wearer.

In the United States the great majority of the academic costumes now worn are in accordance with the general provisions of the Intercollegiate Code of 1895. Under this code, bachelors' gowns are made with pointed sleeves; masters' gowns are made with long closed sleeves with an arc near the bottom and slits for the arms; doctors' gowns are made with round open sleeves. All gowns are black. In foreign countries, gowns are of various colors.

Bachelors' and masters' gowns are untrimmed. Doctors' gowns are faced down the front with velvet with three velvet bars across the sleeves. The facing and bars may be black or they may be the color of the field of study. Material of the gown and hood is usually of cotton or worsted for the bachelors' gowns and silk for the masters' and doctors' gowns. Gowns are worn open, except for the bachelor's which is closed at the top only. Women may wear white collars with a bachelor's gown when no hood is worn.

Hoods are also black. The doctor's hood is four feet in length; the master's, three and one-half feet; and the bachelor's, three feet. Hoods are lined with the official colors of the university. At the University of Illinois, these are orange and blue. The border of the hood, which is two inches, three inches, and five inches wide for the bachelor's, master's, and doctor's degrees respectively, identifies the faculty or department of study to which the degree pertains.

The black mortarboard cap is standard in the United States. Doctors wear a gold tassel. Usually all other tassels are black, but where the graduating seniors do not wear a hood, as at the University of Illinois, the color of the cap tassel indicates the department of study. Tassels at the University of Illinois are always worn on the left front quarter of the cap. Caps are customarily removed only during prayers, and then by men only.

Official colors for hood borders and cap tassels are as follows:

Agriculture.....	Maize
Arts and Letters.....	White
Commerce and Business Administration.....	Drab
Dentistry .....	Lilac
Education .....	Light Blue
Engineering .....	Orange
Fine Arts .....	Brown

From every mountain-side,
Let Freedom ring.

Our fathers' God, to Thee

ACADEMIC COSTUMES

The academic costume, consisting of cap, gown, and hood, originated in about the twelfth century. It was primarily worn for warmth. Subsequently, the material of the gown and the lining and shape of the hood represented the economic and social as well as the academic status of the wearer.

In the United States the great majority of the academic costumes now worn are in accordance with the general provisions of the Intercollegiate Code of 1895. Under this code, bachelors' gowns are made with pointed sleeves; masters' gowns are made with long closed sleeves with an arc near the bottom and slits for the arms; doctors' gowns are made with round open sleeves. All gowns are black. In foreign countries, gowns are of various colors.

Bachelors' and masters' gowns are untrimmed. Doctors' gowns are faced down the front with velvet with three velvet bars across the sleeves. The facing and bars may be black or they may be the color of the field of study. Material of the gown and hood is usually of cotton or worsted for the bachelors' gowns and silk for the masters' and doctors' gowns. Gowns are worn open, except for the bachelor's which is closed at the top only. Women may wear white collars with a bachelor's gown when no hood is worn.

Hoods are also black. The doctor's hood is four feet in length; the master's, three and one-half feet; and the bachelor's, three feet. Hoods are lined with the official colors of the university. At the University of Illinois, these are orange and blue. The border of the hood, which is two inches, three inches, and five inches wide for the bachelor's, master's, and doctor's degrees respectively, identifies the faculty or department of study to which the degree pertains.

The black mortarboard cap is standard in the United States. Doctors wear a gold tassel. Usually all other tassels are black, but where the graduating seniors do not wear a hood, as at the University of Illinois, the color of the cap tassel indicates the department of study. Tassels at the University of Illinois are always worn on the left front quarter of the cap. Caps are customarily removed only during prayers, and then by men only.

Official colors for hood borders and cap tassels are as follows:

Agriculture .....	Maize

My country, 'tis of thee,

Sweet land of liberty,

Of thee I sing;

Land where my fathers died,

Land of the Pilgrims' pride,

From every mountain-side,

Let Freedom ring.

Our fathers' God, to Thee

Author of liberty,

To Thee we sing;

Long may our land be bright

With Freedom's holy light;

Protect us by Thy might,

Great God, our King.

ACADEMIC COSTUMES

The academic costume, consisting of cap, gown, and hood, originated in about the twelfth century. It was primarily worn for warmth. Subsequently, the material of the gown and the lining and shape of the hood represented the economic and social as well as the academic status of the wearer.

In the United States the great majority of the academic costumes now worn are in accordance with the general provisions of the Intercollegiate Code of 1895. Under this code, bachelors' gowns are made with pointed sleeves; masters' gowns are made with long closed sleeves with an arc near the bottom and slits for the arms; doctors' gowns are made with round open sleeves. All gowns are black. In foreign countries, gowns are of various colors.

Bachelors' and masters' gowns are untrimmed. Doctors' gowns are faced down the front with velvet with three velvet bars across the sleeves. The facing and bars may be black or they may be the color of the field of study. Material of the gown and hood is usually of cotton or worsted for the bachelors' gowns and silk for the masters' and doctors' gowns. Gowns are worn open, except for the bachelors' which are closed at the top only. Women may wear white collars with bachelors' gowns when no hoods are worn.

Hoods are also black. The doctor's hood is four feet in length; the master's, three and one-half feet; and the bachelor's, three feet. Hoods are lined with the official colors of the university. At the University of Illinois, these are orange and blue. The border of the hood, which is two inches, three inches, and five inches wide for the bachelor's, master's, and doctor's degrees respectively, identifies the faculty or department of study to which the degree pertains.

The black mortarboard cap is standard in the United States. Doctors wear a gold tassel. Usually all other tassels are black, but where the graduating seniors do not wear a hood, as at the University of Illinois, the color of the cap tassel indicates the department of study. Tassels at the University of Illinois are always worn on the left front quarter of the cap. Caps are customarily removed only during prayers, and then by men only.

Official colors for hood borders and cap tassels are as follows:

Agriculture .....	Maize
Arts and Letters.....	White
Commerce and Business Administration.....	Drab
Dentistry .....	Lilac
Education .....	Light Blue
Engineering .....	Orange
Fine Arts .....	Brown
Forestry.....	Russet
